

QGOG secures contract to acquire SeaLytics™ BOP Advisor Software from GE Oil & Gas

Luxembourg, May 7, 2014 — QGOG Constellation S.A. (“QGOG Constellation”) today announced that its subsidiary Queiroz Galvão Óleo e Gás (“QGOG”) has signed agreement to contract SeaLytics™ BOP (blowout preventer) Advisor software system from GE Oil & Gas. This software enables users to predict, plan and address BOP maintenance issues and will contribute to QGOG’s internal program called “BOP 100%”, a continuous effort to further improve operational performance and seek excellence in operations. The contract was announced during the 2014 Offshore Technology Conference (OTC) in Houston.

“With the constant growth we are seeing in the Brazilian offshore sector, QGOG is continually looking at technology that enables us to work smarter and more efficiently,” said Rodrigo Ribeiro, Chief Drilling Operating Officer of QGOG. “We see GE’s new software as an important tool to further improve the overall performance of our BOPs.”
